

RO Real Estate appoints new investment director

3 years ago

The RO Group is pleased to announce the appointment of Nick Cashmore who joins RO Real Estate in February 2022 as Investment Director. Nick will primarily be based in the Group's London office.

Nick joins from Ardstone Capital, where he has worked since 2015 and was Head of Investment Acquisitions, focused on UK and European real estate. He is experienced across all major sectors with a specific focus on office and industrial real estate in the UK. At Ardstone he worked on over £800m worth of investment transactions across the UK as a key member of their investment team. Nick worked on a number of high profile deals at Ardstone and was responsible for creating new relationships with investment partners.

A member of the Investment Property Forum, Nick is MRICS, qualifying as a member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors in 2010.

Edward Rowlandson, Group Managing Director, RO Group commented: "Nick has a successful track record of identifying, researching, and developing new investment and fund strategies, and seeking pockets of value in the market. As a lead member of our investment team, he will be responsible for sourcing investment opportunities across various sectors in our target geographies; as well as helping to manage each investment transaction from start to finish. We have recently completed a number of successful asset sales and Nick's appointment is at an optimal time to generate and explore new opportunities for our portfolio. We welcome him to the team and look forward to working with him."

Nick Cashmore, Investment Director, RO Real Estate commented: "I am delighted to be joining RO Real Estate as Investment Director and look forward to playing a key role in growing the Group's real estate portfolio. With capital ready to deploy, it is an exciting time to be joining the team to lead on new acquisitions.”

Image credit: The RO