

Savills announces UK promotions

3 years ago

International real estate advisor Savills has announced the promotion of 355 fee earners across its UK business.

A total of 161 people will move up to associate, 116 to associate director and 78 to director level within divisions including: building & project consultancy; business space; central London & international (CLI); development; hotel, leisure & trading; housing; lettings; operational capital markets (OCM); planning; professional services; property management; residential; residential development sales; retail; rural, energy & projects (REP); UK investment and valuation.

James Sparrow, CEO of Savills UK & EMEA, comments: "I want to congratulate each of these individuals on their much deserved promotions. The last two years have been hugely challenging for everyone in the work environment and it is an enormous credit to be promoted against that backdrop. The number of promotions also demonstrates our commitment as a business to grow, diversify and evolve."
