

The Clean Space Acquire Abelian UK Ltd In Major Deal For Commercial Cleaning Sector

3 years ago

We are thrilled to announce that The Clean Space have acquired London-based cleaning company Abelian UK Ltd as part of ambitious growth plans.

The combined company will significantly increase resources and capabilities for The Clean Space, allowing the business to compete more effectively and profitably in London and the Southeast.

Charlie Mowat, CEO of The Clean Space said of the recent acquisition: “We’re delighted by this major acquisition. We chose Abelian because of the excellent synergy between the two companies, and because of the clear similarities in our customer base, both by locations and sectors.

“We’re excited to be able to offer Abelian’s existing customer base further services to bolster their cleaning initiatives, such as our leading all natural probiotic cleaning solutions.

“We saw a great fit with Abelian and are excited to be merging to create one, larger and even stronger team.”

With over 17 years’ experience in the sector, The Clean Space currently employs over 550 cleaners and 25 head office staff to deliver commercial cleaning services to customers nationwide.

Stefano Cabras, Managing Director at The Clean Space commented: “We’re excited to welcome the Abelian team and its customers into The Clean Space culture. I’d like to take this opportunity to thank both teams for their openness, loyalty and dedication during the integration process. Also, our customers who have supported us through the transition. The acquisition, was smooth and harmonic which is testament to the hard work, collaboration and experience on both sides.”
