

Tilbury Douglas officially opens its new West Midlands Hub

3 years ago

Tilbury Douglas has officially opened its new West Midlands Hub located at T3, Trinity Park, in Birmingham.

The new Hub accommodates the Midlands UK Building team, alongside Tilbury Douglas Engineering, Tilbury Douglas Infrastructure and the business's central functions. The open plan space supports collaborative working between the business units, as well as flexibility and choice for people to work in teams or individually.

Simon Butler, Regional Managing Director – Central at Tilbury Douglas, commented: “We are pleased to have officially opened our new West Midlands Hub and are already benefitting from working more effectively in this new space. We look forward to welcoming our clients and suppliers to the Hub.”
