

Pareto appoints Alishya Artwell as HR Director

3 years ago

Following a successful 12 months as People Experience Manager of Pareto FM, the business is pleased to announce that from May 1st, 2022, Alishya Artwell has been promoted to HR Director.

Alishya has over 10 years of successful HR experience which includes achieving an HR degree from Greenwich University London & attaining a CIPD Level 7 Diploma. Since joining Pareto, Alishya has made an immediate impact on the business, implementing many new processes and ensuring successful day-to-day delivery.

Andrew Hulbert MD commented “We are thrilled to promote Alishya to the senior team. Alishya has provided a wealth of HR experience that adds process, strength and in-depth knowledge to the HR function particularly during our successful transition to operate in 5 new countries in 2021. Pareto are delighted to develop Alishya’s journey into senior leadership and look forward to the great benefits she will bring as a senior leader of the business.”

Alishya Artwell who will join the team of Directors and become one of the core leaders of the business adds “I am delighted to be a part of the Pareto organisation. It is an exciting time for Pareto and the Facilities Management industry, and I look forward to continuing to drive and shape the HR function for this unique and growing business.”