

Portfolio by Churchill wins 3-year cleaning contract with international law firm Penningtons Manches Cooper

3 years ago

Portfolio, the high-end cleaning and hygiene service by Churchill Group, is delighted to announce that it has won a three-year contract with law firm Penningtons Manches Cooper.

The contract commenced on 1st April and includes cleaning and hygiene services, feminine washroom services, window cleaning and consumables. Portfolio employees will work on the contract at seven Penningtons Manches Cooper sites – London, Basingstoke, Birmingham, Cambridge, Guildford, Oxford and Reading.

Penningtons Manches Cooper is a leading UK and international law firm delivering imaginative and incisive advice. The firm's specialist areas include dispute resolution, corporate and commercial, real estate, private client, and family law, and prides itself on being a knowledge organisation that is technologically adept, flexible, and committed to inclusivity and diversity.

The firm's brief called for a service partner that embodies care of its employees, as well as one that could support its ESG strategy. Portfolio was awarded the contract thanks to its track record of excellent service delivery, sustainability credentials and technology solutions.

Keith Sargeant, facilities manager at Penningtons Manches Cooper, said: "We recognise how important service providers are to our ESG and flexible working strategies. Portfolio ticked all the boxes, and we know that they will go above and beyond to add value. We were thoroughly impressed by Portfolio's commitment to sustainability and plastic reduction and believe they will be an excellent collaborative partner over the course of the contract.”

Antony Law, chief commercial officer at Churchill Group, added: “We’re thrilled to work with a law firm as renowned as Penningtons Manches Cooper. We are confident that in addition to providing an outstanding service from day one, we can provide insight and advice that will help PMC achieve its ESG goals.”

Image credit: Shutterstock