

Bellrock Property & Facilities Management continues growth with the appointment of new CEO

4 years ago

Bellrock Property & Facilities Management Limited, a leading provider of specialist risk-focused workplace & property management solutions in the UK, today announces the appointment of Paul Bean as its new Chief Executive Officer.

Paul brings a wealth of experience to Bellrock, having previously held the position of CEO, UK & Europe for City FMH Ltd. Prior to that, Paul was CEO of Mining Worldwide at Sodexo. His breadth of knowledge and experience spans over 20 years in a variety of other senior-level roles within the facilities and hospitality management sectors, playing an important role in creating and executing business strategies. Paul will be working closely with Bellrock's Management Board, alongside Sun European Partners, LLP as they continue to broaden its capability set and add strength to its technology offering.

Paul Bean, CEO, Bellrock Property & Facilities Management, said: "I am delighted to join Bellrock Group as their new CEO at such a key stage in the organisations' growth journey and am excited to be working with all our stakeholders to provide 'best in class' solutions to Bellrock's current and future customers."

Stephen Perkins, CFO, Bellrock Property & Facilities Management, said: "We are very excited to have Paul on board. As a business, we have an incredible opportunity in front of us, and Paul's experience within the industry will give us a fresh and unique perspective as we continue to accelerate our growth, our focus on sustainability and carbon net zero, and our investment in our technology."
