

Foodservice and facilities management specialist joins CH&CO

4 years ago

CH&CO has appointed Nigel Forbes as an Executive Director to strengthen its strategic partnerships.

Working closely with CH&CO's leadership team, Nigel will use his expertise and knowledge to nurture the catering and hospitality company's growing partnership with facilities management and professional services company Mitie and its clients. He will also identify opportunities for further growth and retention, adding additional value across CH&CO's diverse business.

Nigel has a strong background and reputation in both food service and integrated facilities management. He has held senior leadership roles and for the last 15 years he has consulted on strategy and growth across a broad portfolio of private and public sector organisations.

Nigel said: "I have known the CH&CO team for many years and I'm delighted to be joining such an enthusiastic group of foodservice professionals who are focused on providing quality food and service, always with the clients and customers at its centre."

Bill Toner, CH&CO's CEO, said: "We're absolutely delighted that Nigel has joined us at CH&CO. His strong skillset and expertise within the sector will help drive the business forward and further strengthen our strategic partnerships as well as adding value to the wider business as we continue to rebuild and grow."
