

PTSG to work in England's smallest county

4 years ago

Premier Technical Services Group Ltd \(PTSG\) has been awarded a new contract Rutland County Council, to deliver a wide range of water hygiene services across many of their sites.

Rutland is England's smallest and arguably its most beautiful county, living up to its famous motto, 'Multum in Parvo' (much in little). Rutland's two quaint market towns, Uppingham and Oakham are popular tourist destinations, as is Rutland Water, an outdoor hotspot that offers water sports, cycling, fishing, and birdwatching.

Engineers from PTSG Water Treatment Ltd will be carrying out Legionella Risk Assessments, TMV Servicing, Expansion Vessel Servicing, Shower Head Descaling, Legionella Sampling and TVC Sampling. The properties involved are all Rutland County Council sites and include schools, council offices, libraries, museums, Oakham Castle, civic amenity sites, children's centres, cemeteries, chapels, bus stations and registry offices.

PTSG Water Treatment Ltd is one of five divisions within Premier Technical Services Group Ltd \(PTSG\) - the others being PTSG Access & Safety Ltd, PTSG Electrical Services Ltd, PTSG Building Access Specialists Ltd and PTSG Fire Solutions Ltd. Together, they deliver the full range of specialist services to the construction and FM sectors.
