

Square deal for Q3

4 years ago

Q3 Services has secured a three-year contract with The Square, Camberley's leading retail shopping centre.

The Square, with around 100 national and independent retailers, spans 480,000sq ft at the heart of the town centre which has also recently benefited from a £355m regeneration programme.

Commencing September 1st, Q3 will be providing security, cleaning and other soft FM services across The Square, as part of a three-year deal that will employ up to 20 people, 24/7, including a full-time, on-site manager.

Commenting on this latest contract, Q3's CEO, Martyn Freeman, said: "This is a great win for Q3, which serves to strengthen both our presence within the retail shopping centre market and our involvement with local authorities, as well as increasing our security services footprint in the UK."

Rhoda Joseph, Centre Manager, said: "We have built a strong team ethic here at The Square and with all the site enhancements reaching completion, we are looking forward to working with Q3 to take The Square to the next level as a premier shopping destination in the Surrey, Hampshire and Berkshire catchment area."
