

CBES LTD and CJ LANG announce new partnership

3 years ago

City Building and Engineering Services Ltd and CJ Lang & Son Ltd are delighted to announce a new partnership to deliver maintenance services to over 100 SPAR stores throughout Scotland.

CBES will provide an asset building maintenance service which includes building fabric and electrical works to CJ Lang's directly owned SPAR convenience stores.

Established in Dundee in 1919, CJ Lang is a family-owned business, and a wholesaler for SPAR stores in Scotland, supplying over 300 SPAR convenience stores across the country and employing over 1700 staff. CJ Lang is the country's largest independent retailing group and is now embarking on their biggest ever store investment programme.

CBES are a forward looking engineering and construction company focussed on delivering safe and innovative constructive solutions to our customers, across a variety of sectors throughout the UK. A key business of the highly successful City Facilities Management Group delivering global major FM solutions to blue chip customers, CBES employ over 700 people throughout the UK and this comprehensive in-house resource includes design managers, project managers, engineers, trainees, support staff and over 350 directly employed engineers.

CBES are delighted to have been selected to deliver this service which is underpinned by our significant experience in the retail sector delivering construction, engineering & maintenance services to customers such as ASDA, Marks and Spencer, Coop, Home Bargains & Sainsbury's to name a few. As experts in this sector, CJ Lang can expect service excellence via our 24/7 helpdesk and in-house engineers.

Both organisations are thrilled by the new partnership and committed to a productive and close working relationship going forward.

Our Managing Director, Fraser Allan said: “We are absolutely delighted to be appointed to support SPAR in Scotland and are excited about working in partnership with CJ Lang and colleagues to maintain, protect add value to their estate”

Colin McLean, CEO at CJ Lang & Son Ltd, said: “We are looking forward to working with CBES. This partnership reflects the significant investment we are making into our business and it ensures our company-owned estate of SPAR stores are best placed to meet the needs of our local shoppers.”
