

Lancer Scott appoints new FM MD

3 years ago

Lancer Scott, the construction and facilities management company, has appointed Daniel Knight as Managing Director of its FM division.

Dan has a wealth of experience having held senior roles at CBRE and previously with Norland Managed Services. Dan was the Business Unit Director at CBRE for Wales and the South of England.

An experienced and accomplished leader, Dan brings a track record of delivering sustainable business growth. He was the driving force behind the rise of Norland in the south-west and oversaw the transition of the regional business following its acquisition by CBRE.

Dan commented “Lancer Scott is an established business that has grown by prioritising customer satisfaction and I am looking forward to working with such a fantastic team. It is an exciting opportunity to lead the transformation and growth of this business whilst being true to its underlying ethos”.

Morian Cooke, CEO of Lancer Scott, said: “Delivering the best possible service to our clients has been the key to our success. During a period of growth and restructuring, Dan’s appointment will be pivotal to ensuring that this ethos continues. His experience will be invaluable. I am pleased to welcome Dan to the senior team and board of Lancer Scott.”

Lancer Scott FM provides construction and hard FM services across a range of market sectors including food and retail, hospitality & leisure, public and private sectors.
