

Big scoop as company receives top accolades from British Chamber

3 years ago

Vertas Group was honoured at the British Chamber Business Awards where it scooped a regional accolade.

Facilities management and property and recruitment consultancy Vertas Group took the top regional prize in the Workforce Developer category.

Vertas Group was recognised for its approach to the learning and development of its team and the effect this has had on business performance.

The Group were also recognised for its passion for championing a 'People Making a Difference' work strategy which values and supports staff and aims to foster an environment where all workers can achieve and sustain excellence in their career journey. Its 'Leadership Pathway' programme is aimed at rising stars within the team.

Vertas Group Chief Executive Officer, Ian Surtees said: "We are honoured to have won this regional award, as it recognises the long-term investment we make in our colleagues. Our people are what make our business and we are proud to have highly-skilled individuals and teams who really make the difference to each other, our clients and our community."