

JLL wins five awards at the Legal and General Investment Management (LGIM) annual Spotlight Awards last week

4 years ago

JLL has won five awards in total at the LGIM annual Spotlight Awards.

The awards are open to LGIM's Managing Agents with the aim of celebrating individuals and teams who deliver exceptional service to both LGIM and their occupiers across their managed portfolio.

JLL's Simone Burt was named Financial Reporting Partner of the year and Sam Glassup and Mark Ibbotson were both highly commended for Best Digital Customer/Occupier Experience.

Jess Marrison won the award for the Best Sustainability and Climate Risk initiative and Megan Penlington was highly commended for the 'Above & Beyond' award.

Paul Rixham, Head of Legal & General Investment Management - PAM at JLL said, "Receiving this high-profile recognition reinforces our market leading credentials to deliver the best results for our clients and is a testament to team's incredible hard work, strength and depth of knowledge."
