

Appointment of sales and marketing director celebrated

3 years ago

Hobart Services has announced Marcus Heap as its recently-appointed sales and marketing director, who will lead the business through its next phase of growth.

He has a national and international career background, working in senior sales and marketing positions for a number of companies, where service was a key component of their solution. These include 3M, Office Depot, Manutan and most recently Karcher.

In his new role, he will be responsible for leading the Hobart UK sales team towards further growth across HoReCa, FM and healthcare sectors.

Mr Heap commented: "I am excited to join Hobart Service at a key time in our development. Our high-quality solutions are vitally important to our customers success and a critical component of this is service. I look forward to working with our customers, ensuring we provide the service and information to help them run their businesses more successfully"

Hobart UK Service MD Keith Mackie added: "I am delighted to announce the appointment of our new Sales & Marketing Director, Marcus Heap, who has held several senior sales roles throughout his career spanning different industries and operating in various parts of the world."

"Marcus brings a wealth of B2B sales knowledge from the service/maintenance industry to further support both our team and client base."
