

PTSG helps drive Cazoo forward

3 years ago

Premier Technical Services Group Ltd \(PTSG\) has been contracted to deliver specialist electrical repair for online retailer Cazoo.

Cazoo is a British online car retailer based in London, which was founded in 2018 by Alex Chesterman. It launched an online marketplace for used cars in December 2019, which became its primary business.

It is based in the UK but listed on the New York Stock Exchange following a merger with a special-purpose acquisition company, led by hedge fund manager Dan Och in August 2021.

Cazoo has been involved in sponsorship deals with Aston Villa, the Welsh Rugby Union, a number of annual horse races in Epsom and Doncaster, cricket tournament The Hundred, various events managed by the World Snooker Tour, the PGA European Tour, and the Professional Darts Corporation.

In this contract, engineers from PTSG Electrical Services Ltd will deliver repairs to the lightning protection system in place at Cazoo's customer service centre in Tamworth, ensuring it remains compliant and fully operational to protect buildings and all users.

PTSG has an extensive and ever-growing lightning protection portfolio, delivering not only repairs but brand-new systems for lightning and surge protection as well as testing and inspection for clients in all industry sectors. PTSG operates five business divisions, the other four being PTSG Access & Safety Ltd, PTSG Building Access Specialists Ltd, PTSG Fire Solutions and PTSG Water Treatment Ltd.
