

£20m of new contracts secured

3 years ago

BM has secured more than £20 million of contracts in the last six months – with businesses operating in the financial, tech, media, construction and legal sectors.

The contracts include Lazard, a financial advisory and asset management firm; Moore Kingston Smith, a leading accountancy firm and Murphy, a leading global, multi-disciplined engineering and construction company.

The company has also signed major contracts with several other businesses across London and the Home Counties.

Providing a wide range of catering service

As part of these multi-year deals, BM will provide a wide range of catering services including free issue food, client hospitality, fine-dining, events catering, speciality cafes, reception and AV services (via Portico, its sister company).

Angus Brydon, managing director, BM, “We are delighted to sign these contracts and to support so many fantastic organisations as they continue to grow and expand their businesses.

“These major contracts not only represent the continuous trust organisations have in what we do, but also mark the significant changes we are seeing in the workplace.

“Organisations are really seeing the true value in services such as catering and using it as a tool to continue to engage their employees.”

Simon Booth, Head of Premises and Facilities, Moore Kingston Smith, said: “After selecting our catering partner BM, we have been very impressed with their proactivity and project management.

“Their professionalism brought a level of security around our building move, and we know that we are working with the right partner, as our people enjoy all the experiences and benefits of our new head office.”

And Jason Cousins, Director of Facilities Management at Lazard said: “Since BM has taken over the contract, they have significantly improved the operational support including enhanced support from BM’s culinary team. We are looking forward to developing and strengthening this relationship as we move to our new offices”.
