

Savills Reading marks a decade in business with move to prestigious new office

2 years ago

Real estate advisor, Savills, is marking 10 successful years in Reading by moving its 30-strong team into a prominent new office in the heart of the town.

The firm's new home is at One Forbury Square, which occupies a prime position on the west side of the Square. Savills is located on the ground floor of the building, overlooking Forbury Square, which is also home to Davidson House and the Forbury Hotel.

Phil Brown, head of Savills Reading, comments: 'I am thrilled to announce our move to One Forbury Square. We have grown considerably over the last decade, from a relatively small specialist team into the market-leading multi-disciplinary business we are today.'

'As a result of our continued success, we set our sights on a move some time ago. Having secured the space last year, we have invested in an impressive fit out to meet our current and future needs, including, of course, ensuring it is as sustainable as possible.'

The 3,704 sq. ft. (344.1 sq. m) triple aspect office is home to specialist teams operating across a range of real estate services, including Residential Development Sales, Residential Lettings, Planning, Development, Valuation and Occupier Services.

Savills new address is: Savills Reading, One Forbury Square, Reading, RG1 3BB.

To find out more, visit Savills Reading.