

14forty appoints new Strategic Partner to develop, enhance & strengthen client relationships

2 years ago

14forty, a facilities management services provider part of Compass Group UK & Ireland, has appointed Clare Coffey as its new Strategic Partner.

With almost three decades of experience in account management and partnership growth, Clare has worked with several companies, including Costa, Whitbread, Co-op and Millennium Copthorne.

In her role, she will collaborate with clients, operational and central teams to continually optimise and align the services of 14forty in order to fulfil the dynamic needs of clients, ensuring the most seamless delivery of the highest quality facilities management services.

Mauro Ortelli, Managing Director at 14forty, said: "Clare is an empathetic people person who thrives on building deep and meaningful relationships as evidenced by her impressive work history.

"This makes her perfect for the role of strategic partner and she will be vital to supporting our clients to ensure that their facilities management agendas are met, and areas of development identified over the coming years. I'd like to welcome her to 14forty and wish her every success going forwards."

Clare Coffey commented: "My initial goal is to get fully acquainted with 14forty's clients, to understand their requirements and support in continuing and enhancing our work together. I am looking forward to getting out and meeting all of our partners and to building collaborative working relationships with them."

To learn more about 14forty, please visit: <https://www.14forty.co.uk>

To learn more about Compass Group UK & Ireland, please visit: <https://www.compass-group.co.uk/>