

Bidvest Noonan Promotes Lorraine Monaghan to Drive its Operations in the Education Sector in Ireland

3 years ago

Industry leading facilities services provider, Bidvest Noonan, has announced the appointment of Lorraine Monaghan as the Director of Operations, Education, for its Irish operations.

This development comes as the company charts an impressive growth trajectory, underpinned by its commitment to excellence in its provision of cleaning, security, and M&E maintenance services across the country.

An experienced professional, Monaghan has seen her career with Bidvest Noonan flourish since joining the ranks in April 2014. Her journey, from Customer Service Representative to her new role, is marked by an impressive track record of success having built strong and lasting relationships with some of the leading institutes and universities across the country.

Monaghan, an IWFM graduate with a Diploma in Facilities Management, has held a series of progressively responsible positions in the company, most notably as a dedicated Contract Manager for one of Dublin's most renowned universities and later as an Operations Manager where she handled an expanding client base in the education sector. These experiences have provided her with a unique perspective and the necessary skills to succeed in her new role as Director of Operations.

Mary Kealy, Managing Director for Bidvest Noonan's Workplace Solutions, underscores the importance of this appointment: "Lorraine's promotion marks a significant milestone in our growth strategy. Her in-depth understanding of the sector, coupled with her proven ability to deliver results, make her an asset as she steps into this role. We are very confident that she will drive further success within our education portfolio.”

Monaghan, enthusiastic about taking on the new role, shared: “This is a significant step for me at an exciting time for Bidvest Noonan. I am privileged to have worked with some of the best talent in the sector and this experience has prepared me for the challenge ahead. My vision is to build on our strong foundation and continue delivering the exceptional services that Bidvest Noonan is known for, while also exploring innovative ways to grow and provide more value for our customers.”

The appointment underpins Bidvest Noonan’s commitment to investing in its people, promoting talent from within, and driving robust growth.
