

Lewis & Graves reports Strong Start to 2023

2 years ago

Lewis & Graves Partnership (L&G), part of the Atlas Group, has reported a strong start to 2023. This has been driven by 11 contract wins in the first half of the year, with an annual value of £1.8 million, including a multi-academy trust consisting of 14 schools.

L&G specialises in providing cleaning and support services to the education sector, and is one of the leading companies in London, the South East and East Anglia. In addition to the new business wins, the team have also retained significant business in retenders and have a pipeline awaiting award of £3.9 million.

James Abbott, Operations Director, L&G said: "The sales team has had a very busy and successful start to 2023. We have revamped our submissions and presentations, showcasing our expertise and experience in the education sector, which has increased our win rate. Our proven track record of service delivery, combined with our innovations, enable us to provide cost effective solutions tailored to our clients' requirements."
