

Bidvest Noonan appoints Keith Middleton as Managing Director of its transport sector business

3 years ago

Bidvest Noonan, a leading provider of facilities services, has appointed Keith Middleton as Managing Director for its rapidly growing Transport Sector Business.

Serving airports, ports, bus operators, and rail operators throughout the UK and Ireland, the company's work positively impacts over 1.5 billion passenger journeys annually, solidifying its position as a key player in the transport sector.

With over three decades of experience, Middleton has a successful track record in the facilities services industry. He has held senior leadership roles with companies such as ISS and Mitie prior to joining Bidvest Noonan.

Middleton's extensive experience in the industry and transport sector uniquely qualifies him to lead Bidvest Noonan's transport sector business.

This appointment follows a series of strategic moves by Bidvest Noonan in recent years to grow and strengthen the business. The company has continued to invest in expertise, with Middleton being the latest senior leader and subject matter expert to join the company.

Commenting on Middleton's appointment, Bidvest Noonan CEO, Jeff Flanagan, said, "Keith is a seasoned leader with drive and ambition; his impressive background and extensive industry experience make him a perfect fit for our business. Our transport sector business has secured several exciting contracts this year, and I am confident that under Keith's leadership, the business will go from strength to strength."

Sharing his enthusiasm about his new role, Keith Middleton remarked, "I'm delighted to have joined Bidvest Noonan. The company is increasingly known for its dedication to innovation, sustainability, and the wellbeing of its people. I'm excited about the impact I can make here and am looking forward to working with my new colleagues."