2 years ago

The Commissioning Specialists Association (CSA) has announced that its annual awards will take place at Leonardo Royal Hotel in London on 5 October.

Designed to reward and recognise the exemplary efforts of commissioning specialists around the UK, the event will welcome CSA members and industry representatives.

Drinks and canapes will be served from 6.30pm on the evening of the awards, followed by a three-course meal and entertainment from musician Andy Wilsher.

The awards to deserving recipients, accompanied by official recipients, will be presented from 9.30pm, hosted by TV presenter and personality Andrew Byrne.

After the awards, the organiser will stage the Higher or Lower game in aid of the Support Dogs UK charity, the CSA's chosen charity for 2023.

The CSA chairman will provide closing comments around 10.30pm, after which attendees will be invited to remain and enjoy further entertainment and networking opportunities until midnight.

Those wishing to book tickets to attend the event are invited to contact CSA secretary Joanna Rowe for more details, by calling 02080809679 or emailing jo@csa.org.uk.
