

CBRE named in Best Corporate Citizens list

3 years ago

CBRE Group has been named within the 3BL annual 100 Best Corporate Citizens ranking in the United States (US) for the fifth consecutive year. The company was the only real estate business to earn a place among the top 100 after it demonstrated improvements on climate change and the environment – the two categories that contribute the most to a company’s ranking – as well as human rights and governance.

The 100 Best Corporate Citizens list is designed to recognise outstanding environmental, social and governance (ESG) transparency and performance among the 1,000 largest US public companies. The ranking is based on 184 factors in seven pillars: climate change, employee relations, environment, governance, human rights, stakeholders and society, and ESG performance.

“We are proud of the strides CBRE is making in transitioning toward a low carbon and resilient future, creating a diverse and inclusive workplace, and building trust with our stakeholders through ethics and integrity. Good corporate citizenship is at the heart of our company culture and serves as the foundation of our ability to deliver exceptional outcomes for our clients,” said chief culture officer Banke Odunaike.

In the past year, the company was the highest-ranked commercial real estate services company on Forbes’ inaugural Net-Zero Leaders list, earned a place on the 2023 Bloomberg Gender-Equality Index for the fourth consecutive year, and rose to No. 4 on the Barron’s list of the 100 most sustainable US-based companies for 2023.
