The Office for Students is a non-departmental public body of the Department for Education, acting as the regulator and competition authority for the higher education sector in England.

Chief commercial officer Ian Wiggins said: "We are delighted to have partnered with the Office for Students following a rigorous tender process. This contract continues to add to Pareto's growing hard services capability across the UK.

"University leavers have played a core part in the Pareto senior management team, so we feel a great deal of privilege to partner with such an organisation. We look forward to continuing this partnership and developing the services."
