

Technical services director appointed

2 years ago

Relocation service provider Business Moves Group (BMG) has appointed Steve Harding as its new technical services director.

He joins the business with extensive experience in the logistics industry across various sectors, with excellent strategic planning skills. His previous experience includes managing a team of over 800 FTEs across 20 sites in the UK, supported by his strategic partners.

Mr Harding will be responsible for the integration of new technologies and assisting on projects with large quantities of technical equipment. Furthermore, he will be focussing on new sectors to bring added value to new and existing clients, whilst also driving continuous improvement and efficiencies throughout the company's operations.

He said: "I am eager to get to know the team and help on different accounts across the country. The business is consistently delivering excellence through each of its service lines, and I hope to help my new colleagues enhance this further."

Managing director Rachel Houghton said: "Steve is a real asset to BMG, and we are delighted to have him on board. Our work in sectors such as healthcare and media means we have a number of clients in need of technical service expertise, and Steve is one of the best in the business."