

Celebrating industry excellence at the upcoming FASET AGM Awards Evening

3 years ago

On Thursday 23rd November, the Fall Arrest Safety Equipment Training association (FASET) is set to host its highly anticipated 2023 AGM and Awards Evening. The event, expected to draw over 100 industry professionals, promises a day of enriching discussions and recognition of excellence in temporary safety systems.

The programme consists of thought-provoking presentations from distinguished speakers, delving into topics such as regulatory law, wellbeing, and the risks associated with contractor machinery. Attendees can expect to gain valuable insights from experts in these important fields.

In the evening, guests will be treated to the comedic talents of the award-winning Pete Otway, setting the stage for the highlight of the event – the much-anticipated awards ceremony.

Guiding attendees through this prestigious event will be Tony Seddon, Managing Director at FASET. Five awards are up for grabs, each celebrating a commitment to excellence in the industry.

Among the coveted honours are:

- FASET Trainee of the Year 2023, sponsored by 3 Education Ltd
- FASET Installer of the Year 2023, sponsored by Huck Nets (UK) Ltd
- FASET Excellence of Work Award 2023, sponsored by Leon De Oro
- FASET Investment In People Award 2023, sponsored by Trad Hire & Sales Ltd
- FASET Health, Safety and Environmental, sponsored by Achievement Award 2023 – IPAF

Tony Seddon's Perspective

Tony Seddon, reflecting on the growth of the AGM over the years, expresses his excitement for this year's event: "The AGM has evolved into a platform that not only recognises excellence but also fosters a sense of community within our industry," says Seddon. "We look forward to celebrating the achievements of our colleagues and peers."

Make sure you're following FASET on LinkedIn and Twitter be kept in the loop during the evening. For more information surrounding the evening, visit <https://www.faset.org.uk/faset-agm-2023/>