

Cheryl McCall appointed as Emcor chief executive officer

2 years ago

Hard service provider Emcor Group \(UK\) has announced that chief financial officer Cheryl McCall has been appointed as its chief executive officer, effective 1 January 2024, succeeding Keith Chanter, who is retiring from the company after 16 years.

She joined as CFO in 2021 and brings extensive experience in the infrastructure and FM services sectors. She has more than 30 years of finance experience, having previously served as UKI CFO at AECOM. Prior to that, she worked as an auditor in South Africa with Hills Howard & Associates and an infrastructure controller at ICO Global Communications, a telecommunications company. She is a Chartered Accountant and has both a BCompt. degree and Honours degree in Finance.

Group CEO and president Anthony J Guzzi said: "We are pleased to appoint Cheryl as the next CEO of Emcor UK. With her significant business experience and financial acumen, we are confident that under her leadership the business will continue to successfully drive its growth as it delivers customer-focused solutions in the fast-paced UK facilities market."

"We also want to wish Keith well in his retirement after a successful career with Emco UK," continued Mr. Guzzi. "Keith has been instrumental in transforming Emcor UK into the successful business that it is today with a focus on delivering high quality, cost effective and sustainable solutions for our customers in some of the most demanding sectors in the UK. Under Keith's leadership, Emcor UK has become a mission-focused organisation that lives Emcor's values of Mission First, People Always, and I am confident that Cheryl will continue to build upon these shared values."

"It has been a privilege to serve as CEO of Emcor UK for the last 16 years and to have worked alongside such a driven team,” said Mr Chanter. “Since Cheryl joined Emcor UK, she has proven herself to be an invaluable member of the leadership team. I look forward to seeing her take Emcor UK’s performance to the next level, and I am confident Cheryl is the right person to lead the charge.”

Ms McCall said: “I am honoured to serve as EMCOR UK’s next CEO. My experiences over the past two years at EMCOR UK have only further intensified my belief that there are tremendous growth opportunities ahead, and I am excited to continue working with our exceptional team to build upon the great accomplishments Keith has led.”
