

JLL announce pavilion partnership with UKREiiF 2024

1 year ago

JLL has announced its partnership with the UK's Real Estate Investment & Infrastructure Forum (UKREiiF). The event is set to take place between 21-23 May 2024, in Leeds.

This is the third consecutive year that JLL has taken a central pavilion at the event where its presence has continued to grow. This pavilion will serve as an exclusive space, providing JLL with the opportunity to welcome delegates to enjoy workshops, showcases, interviews and panel discussions throughout the three-day duration. With an anticipated attendance of over 10,000 delegates, JLL's pavilion is set to be a focal point for industry networking and insightful conversations.

Stephanie Hyde, UK CEO and EMEA Markets CEO at JLL, said: "It has been immensely rewarding to see UKREiiF evolve in to one of the UK's must-attend industry events. It has grown to encompass the spheres of real estate and infrastructure and brought them together with the industry's leading public and private sector experts who understand how to deliver transformative investment and growth across the country.

"We are curating a programme of events that will seek to address the key issues that our sector faces to help improve our towns and cities and deliver real environmental, social and economic growth."

Keith Griffiths, Chief Executive Officer and Founder of UKREiiF, said: "We are absolutely delighted to announce JLL's continued support for the upcoming UKREiiF event. The resounding success of JLL's pavilion over the past couple of years, marked by delegates eagerly lining up outside, attests to the tremendous impact of the high-level panel discussions on sustainable, inclusive, and transformative investment across the UK.

"As we eagerly anticipate the 2023 event, we look forward with great anticipation to the innovative and insightful contributions that JLL's pavilion is sure to bring. It's continued commitment to fostering dialogue and advancing the discourse on pivotal issues in the realm of real estate and investment is truly commendable. Here's to another year of impactful discussions and shared insights at JLL's pavilion!"

Led by the UK's leading property events company Built Environment Networking and supported by some of the biggest UK property and infrastructure companies, the third annual UKREiiF event will be held in Leeds on 21-23 May 2024. The forum will attract inward investment, generate economic growth, and drive a more sustainable and inclusive culture within the property and construction industries.
