

Atlas has been reappointed to deliver cleaning services by the Zoological Society of London (ZSL).

2 years ago

The 5-year contract was awarded following a competitive tender process and includes an extensive 7-day cleaning service at London and Whipsnade Zoos, as well as hospitality events, retail, community education centres and offices.

ZSL is an international conservation charity driven by science, working to restore wildlife in the UK and around the world. Atlas' partnership commenced in 2016 with the cleaning contract at London Zoo.

Sara Muller, Head of Procurement ZSL commented:

“Everything we do at ZSL has animal welfare and protection as the highest priority. Our partnership with Atlas continues to evolve, as their knowledge and experience facilitate service improvements and innovations which extend their care and attention to our animals, visitors and colleagues.”

Chris Wisely, Group Managing Director of Atlas, said:

“This prestigious contract continues our strong relationship with ZSL. We continue to enhance the high-quality visitor and employee experience through investment in new equipment and processes that boost productivity, add value, deliver sustainability improvements and ensure the retention of our loyal employees.”
