

ISS appoints Mads Holm as new Group CFO

2 years ago

ISS A/S, a leading workplace experience and facility management company, today announces the appointment of Mads Holm as Group Chief Financial Officer. He will join ISS no later than 1 August 2024 and will be based in the Group's Headquarters in Copenhagen.

Mads Holm joins ISS from Equinor, where he currently holds the position as CFO of Equinor Renewables, as well as Member and former Chair of the Board for Equinor Asset Management. Since joining Equinor in 2012, Mads held several finance leadership positions including responsibility of Financial Reporting, Tax, Treasury, Investor Relations, Asset Management and supply chain excellence. Prior to Equinor, Mads held various positions within Danske Bank where he started in 2003, and he holds an MSc in Finance and Accounting from Copenhagen Business School.

"As our new Group CFO, Mads will be an important addition to our Executive Group Management team. Mads brings extensive financial, operational, and transformational experience to the role and combined with his equity market experience, he will be an important driver in the next phase of the OneISS journey to deliver on our strategy, ambitions and financial targets. I am looking forward to welcoming Mads to ISS and our more than 350,000 colleagues," says Kasper Fangel, Group CEO of ISS.

"I am delighted and proud to have been offered this exciting opportunity to be the Group CFO of ISS. It's a fantastic company with a strong history of delivering high-quality services to customers, performed by its many thousand strong teams across the world. I am looking forward to being part of the journey and meeting my many new colleagues," says Mads Holm.

Interim Group CFO, Carsten Højlund, will continue in the current role to ensure a smooth hand over when

