

The RSPH Health & Wellbeing Awards

2 years ago

Established in 2007, the RSPH Health & Wellbeing Awards is now the UK's premier awards scheme for promoting health and wellbeing.

- The awards are, and always have been, free to enter
- Each finalist will receive two free tickets to the RSPH Awards ceremony, where the winners will be announced
- Previous winners have gone on to win funding bids, receive media coverage and attract new trustees and patrons

Applications for Health and Wellbeing Awards 2024 are now open! ENTER THE HEALTH AND WELLBEING AWARDS 2024

The Awards recognise and celebrate a wide range of activities, policies and strategies that empower communities and individuals, improve the population's health and address the wider social determinants of health.

The assessment criteria are based on the principles of the Ottawa Charter for Health Promotion and subsequent international declarations which call for action to achieve 'Health for All'.

There are six categories representing the breadth and reach of public health projects and programmes:

- Arts & Health Award
- Community Health Development Award
- Health & Wellbeing in Workplaces Award
- Health at Every Age Award
- Healthier Lives Award

- Mental Health & Wellbeing Award
