

Tudor period begins for Atlas

1 year ago

Award-winning FM company Atlas has announced that the Tudor Group has joined its family of businesses.

Tudor services a multi-sector client base which includes Transport for Greater Manchester, Savills, MAPP, Interactive Investor and the Principality Stadium in Cardiff. It specialises in office, stadium, accommodation and window cleaning, and also offers building and technical services.

The business is based out of Eccles, Greater Manchester with additional offices in Cardiff and Bristol. In total Tudor operates at more than 250 sites.

Tudor has been delivering outstanding professional cleaning and specialist support services for over 30 years, and aims to brighten places where people live, work and play. Atlas says this culture fits nicely with its purpose of Creating Happiness for its employees, customers and communities.

Chris Wisely, Atlas Group Managing Director, commented: "We are very happy to have Tudor join the Atlas family and welcome 500 talented employees. This strengthens our quality cleaning operations across the North West and South West. It also offers us the opportunity to self-deliver more window cleaning and specialist services for our valued client base."

Fabien Caqueret, Managing Director of Tudor Group, added: "We are delighted to be merging with Atlas, who have a track record of supporting and charging the growth of new businesses in its group. We will benefit from Atlas deepening our commercial offering in key sectors – such as hospitality, education, leisure and the public sector – while we look forward to helping Atlas offer yet more quality services to its existing clients."
