

Workthere continues to expand UK team

1 year ago

Workthere, Savills flexible office specialist, has recently expanded its growing UK team with the appointment of Tobi Olusola, who joins as a data analyst and will be based at the firm's London headquarters.

Tobi joins from Knight Frank where he was a data analyst in the London investment team. At Workthere, he will focus on the CRM data system as well as data analysis and research.

Cal Lee, global head of Workthere, comments: "We are very excited to welcome Tobi to the team, he has a unique skillset that will complement the existing expertise in the team as well as enhancing our CRM processes and data analysis."