

Director promotion at Barnsdales FM

1 year ago

Barnsdales is delighted to announce the promotion of Andrew Turner BA (Hons) MRICS to Director of the commercial property management team.

Andrew is a Chartered Surveyor and a very experienced management surveyor; prior to joining Barnsdales he was Property Director of Bayford & Co in Leeds and Managing Director of Deacons Chartered Surveyors in Wetherby.

Jason Barnsdale MRICS, Group Managing Director commented “Andrew has made a significant impact on our commercial property management team over the last couple of years, he has been instrumental in securing new property management mandates and has implemented new efficient and effective working practices across the department whilst working very closely with our in house Facilities Management team.

“Andrew’s promotion to Director is absolutely deserved and it makes me very happy to make yet another internal promotion in recognition of someones hard work and dedication to our business”.
