

Award-Winning HALO Kilmarnock selects Spectrum for Cleaning Services

2 years ago

Spectrum Service Solutions has secured a new cleaning contract at the renowned HALO Kilmarnock. This win adds to Spectrum's growing portfolio and highlights their expertise in maintaining high-quality commercial spaces.

HALO Kilmarnock is a revolutionary facility designed to foster business success. Located on the former site of the Johnnie Walker whisky plant, this 23-acre development encompasses housing, leisure, and workspace solutions. The centerpiece of HALO is the Enterprise and Innovation Centre – a commercial hub dedicated to igniting digital learning, inspiring innovative thinking, and empowering businesses of all sizes.

HALO offers a comprehensive workspace experience within a thriving community. Tenants can leverage the expertise of the #RockMe team alongside renowned academic partners like Ayrshire College and Glasgow Caledonian University. Additionally, blue-chip companies like Scottish Power, Barclays, and law firms Anderson Strathearn and Anderson Anderson Brown LLP provide valuable support to growing businesses.

The HALO #RockMe Trading Floor caters to diverse workspace needs, offering hot desks, collaborative spaces, event areas, and dedicated studios.

Beyond fostering business growth, HALO Kilmarnock is a champion of environmental responsibility. This award-winning development is a low-carbon energy site powered by renewable resources. HALO's commitment to sustainability has been recognised by prestigious organizations, including the British Council for Offices (BCO) with their "Scotland's Best Corporate Workplace" award and the Scottish Property Awards for "Best Regeneration Project."

Spectrum's Operations Director, Rebecca Bell, said: "We are extremely pleased to be awarded this contract. HALO is a fabulous state-of-the-art facility and has already collected a number of prestigious awards. We work in many serviced office buildings throughout Scotland, but I believe this is probably the first one that has been purpose-built. Careful thought has obviously been given to what the target businesses need to support their early growth as well as a focus on sustainability; it certainly is an impressive business."

Spectrum's cleaning expertise will ensure a clean and inviting environment for businesses to thrive within the innovative ecosystem of HALO Kilmarnock.
