

Churchill Group wins 8th consecutive RoSPA Gold Award

1 year ago

Churchill Group has been awarded a Gold Medal from the Royal Society for the Prevention of Accidents (RoSPA). The Gold Medal is awarded to organisations that have received the RoSPA Gold Award for five – nine consecutive years; this year marks Churchill’s 8th consecutive Gold Award.

Churchill Group won the award for its exemplary health and safety record during the 2023 calendar year. The 8th consecutive award demonstrates Churchill Group’s continued commitment to health and safety excellence and the wellbeing of its people.

The RoSPA Awards programme is celebrating its 68th year as the UK’s largest and most impactful health and safety programme. With almost 2,000 entries annually from over 50 countries, impacting over seven million employees, they offer a platform to spotlight an unwavering commitment to continuous improvement and excellence in health and safety.

Whether entrants seek non-competitive excellence recognition or vie for competitive awards across 32 industry sectors, the RoSPA Awards provide an unparalleled opportunity to stand among leaders shaping safer, healthier workplaces. As of this year, the RoSPA award entry process can be used as reflective practise to contribute to continuing professional development (CPD).

Chris Williams, Group QHSE+S director at Churchill, said: “We are delighted that the fantastic efforts by all our colleagues across our business have once again been recognised by RoSPA. It’s a real source of pride to receive verification from an industry leading body and a great benchmark for us to aspire to each year.”

Julia Small, RoSPA’s achievements director, said: “Workplace accidents don’t just pose financial risks and operational disruptions; they significantly impact the quality of life for individuals. This is why acknowledging and rewarding excellent safety performance is vital. We congratulate Churchill Group for winning a prestigious RoSPA Award and showing an unwavering commitment to keeping employees, clients and customers safe from accidental harm and injury.”

Three RoSPA Awards ceremonies will take place next month, in Dubai, London and Glasgow.
