

GSH in UK move to new HQ

1 year ago

Global technical facilities management services provider GSH has moved its UK headquarters to a new purpose built facility near Cambridge.

“The relocation is an exciting step to support our current operational needs and future growth plans” explains Director Mark Pawson. “We are experiencing increasing demand for our services and this move helps cement our commitment to the local economy and indeed across the whole of the UK”.

Rachel Scarr-Hall, fourth generation of the Scarr-Hall family leadership and Chair of GSH Group, presided over the opening ceremony.
