

LSH London Commercial Property Team Continues to Grow

2 years ago

The Commercial Property Management team at LSH grows even stronger as they welcome three new team members to the London office. Derek Adekola, Brandon Foran and Elena Voronova have joined the team as Associate Director, Senior Surveyor and Surveyor respectively.

Derek Adekola

With a total of 16 years of experience as an Associate Director, managing complex property portfolios for Stiles Harold Williams and JLL before that, Derek brings a wealth of expertise in property management, treasury, professional services, and facilities management.

Brandon Foran

With six years of experience at Gerald Eve LLP, Brandon began with them as an apprentice and has since completed a degree in Real Estate Management. Brandon's most recent experience has been in Aviation as Property Asset Manager for Terminal 4 at Heathrow Airport. He joins us as a Senior Surveyor.

Elena Voronova

Elena, who joins us as a Surveyor, has a diverse background in property management and consultancy, bringing extensive experience in leasehold systems, valuation, and property finance. Elena joins us from Graham and Sibbald, where she managed a mixed-use portfolio with a rental income exceeding £5 million.

Kate Murphy, Regional Director at Lambert Smith Hampton said: "We are delighted to welcome these three outstanding professionals to our commercial property management team. Their breadth and depth of knowledge will enhance our capabilities and drive our continued service to our clients. Their diverse backgrounds and proven track records in the industry will be invaluable as we continue to continue to grow our London and Southeast Commercial Property Management business. We are excited to see the contributions they will make to our team."
