

PTSG booked by hotel group

2 years ago

Premier Technical Services Group Ltd \(PTSG\) has been contracted to provide specialist fire solutions for the award-winning Coaching Inn Group.

Growing from its roots in Boston, Lincolnshire, The Coaching Inn Group is an independent hotel operator with a passion for transforming old coaching inns back to their former glory, with a few modern-day twists.

Since its launch in 2005, The Coaching Inn Group has breathed life back into many iconic buildings, providing some of the UK's most famous market towns with a freshly rejuvenated and welcoming central point for locals to relax over dinner or a few drinks and visitors to rest their heads for the night.

The Coaching Inn Group offers 35 individually styled, historic inns. Each hotel has earned itself a great reputation for stylish and comfortable accommodation, offering tempting food and drink menus in a relaxed setting.

In this contract, engineers from PTSG Fire Solutions Ltd will deliver planned preventative maintenance (PPM) to multiple fire safety assets. For PTSG, fire safety is the foundation upon which all buildings are constructed. Rigorous regular testing of fire safety assets should form part of every comprehensive fire safety strategy.
