

Bidvest Noonan Promotes Darren Martin to Director of Operations for Security Division in Ireland

12 months ago

Bidvest Noonan, a market leader in facilities management (FM) services across the UK and Ireland, has announced the promotion of Darren Martin to Director of Operations for its Security Division in Ireland.

Martin's significant contributions to the business and the industry, as well as his dedication to delivering exceptional service for customers, have been key factors in the company's decision to appoint him to the role.

Martin joined Bidvest Noonan in 2019 as a Strategic Account Manager, bringing over 20 years of experience in security, operations, and account management. His expertise has played a crucial role in effectively managing service delivery and driving exceptional performance for blue-chip corporate and retail accounts. Martin's proactive approach and problem-solving skills have consistently led to effective contract management and risk reduction for Bidvest Noonan's customers.

Martin has an impressive track record in security and has been honoured with several awards, including the prestigious OSPA's Outstanding Contract Security Director of the Year Award in 2023.

Reflecting on his promotion, Martin said: "I am delighted to have been given this opportunity at such an exciting time for our business. Our goals for the future are ambitious, and I look forward to helping achieve them."

Mary Kealy, Managing Director of Bidvest Noonan, commented: "Darren's promotion to Director of Operations is well-deserved. His expertise and commitment have been key to our success in the security space. I am confident with his leadership skills and expertise, our security services will continue to excel and provide outstanding results for our clients.”
