

Tristan Mitchell promoted to Assistant Head of Operations for GTFM

1 year ago

Galliford Try, one of the UK's leading construction groups, is pleased to announce that Tristan Mitchell, has been appointed as Assistant Head of Operations for Galliford Try's Facilities Management (GTFM) business.

Tristan originally joined the business in 2003 working in the Infrastructure and Building businesses before moving to Galliford Try Facilities Management as a Facilities Manager in 2011. Since then, he has expanded his wealth of knowledge and experience within the sphere of Facilities Management, actively being involved on projects including Bedford Schools, Mulberry School for Girls, Barking and Havering LIFT and Kent Excellent Homes or All.

In his new role, Tristan will assist in the development and implementation of operational strategies to enhance efficiency and effectiveness in the day-to-day operational service delivery to GTFM projects. In addition to this, he will also supervise and provide guidance to the GTFM teams across existing and new contracts to all staff at all levels.

Tristan commented: "I am very proud and grateful to have received this promotion and to have the opportunity to continue working with such a great group of people.

"I look forward to my new role and delivering on the excellent opportunities FM has in the Group's Sustainable Growth Strategy."

Steve Catlin, Managing Director for Galliford Try Facilities Management, added: "Tristan has been an invaluable member of our FM team for a number of years. His well-deserved promotion demonstrates our commitment to sustainable growth by developing and promoting talent from within. Tristan's new role will be crucial in maintaining our high standards of FM services through supporting our operational teams."
