

Artic begins HVAC workout at Psycle studios in London

11 months ago

Artic Building Services has announced its brand-new partnership with Psycle, a global health and fitness brand, beginning this September. This new commercial facilities management (FM) contract features Artic expertly leading all planned preventative maintenance for heating, ventilation and air conditioning (HVAC) assets. The contract expands across five different sites within the city of London and we are proud to be growing our client base as we continue in our endeavour to deliver a high-quality service.

About Psycle

Founded in 2014, Psycle was built with the aim to hook the people of London onto the transformative power of movement, promoting a healthy and happy lifestyle. Psycle and their team of instructors work hard to offer immersive classes and social environments throughout their locations in London that empower a community of energy and healthy living.

Psycle is driven by its mission to “empower everyone, everywhere to own their life’s beat.” Building bigger and better lifestyles, Psycle strives to make its customers feel limitless in their fitness and power through its classes in Ride, Barre, Strength and Reformer. With Psycle, there is a class for everyone.

Scope of Contract

As part of our partnership with Psycle, we will be delivering our hard FM services across five different sites throughout London that includes, Mortimer Street, Shoreditch, Clapham, Westbourne Grove and Victoria.

In every location our expert engineers will be completing quarterly planned preventative maintenance

(PPM) of the on-site air conditioning and six-monthly PPM on all remaining HVAC equipment, all overseen by a dedicated contract manager and administrator. Our Hard FM services will ensure their plants are running at optimal efficiency in every site.

Commitment to Excellence

Artic are dedicated to ensuring the delivery of excellence across all contracts and we are excited to extend this towards Psycle. We are confident in our new Partnership look forward to its opportunity for mutual growth and development. Our new relationship with Psycle showcases our continued endeavour to provide a dedicated facilities management service to commercial properties throughout London.