

Bidvest Noonan secures new contract with Buttercrane Shopping Centre, reinforcing leadership in Northern Ireland

2 years ago

Building on its momentum in Northern Ireland, Bidvest Noonan has secured a contract to deliver cleaning and security services to Buttercrane Shopping Centre, one of the most visited shopping centres in the region. Attracting over 5.5 million visitors annually and home to more than 50 big-name brands and anchor stores, Buttercrane is a premier retail destination.

This contract win highlights Bidvest Noonan's continued success in the retail sector in Northern Ireland, where it now supports over 15 premier shopping destinations, further reinforcing its leadership in the market.

As part of this partnership, Bidvest Noonan will deploy TASK, its new digital platform designed to streamline operations. The platform will help ensure that Buttercrane Shopping Centre maintains the highest standards in both cleanliness and security.

In addition, Bidvest Noonan will introduce a number of sustainability initiatives at Buttercrane, including the use of chemical-free cleaning products to reduce the centre's environmental impact, supporting its sustainability goals.

Community impact is also a key focus of this partnership. Bidvest Noonan and Buttercrane Shopping Centre will collaborate on community-focused initiatives, including local charity partnerships and environmental awareness campaigns. These efforts reflect a shared commitment to social responsibility and making a positive, meaningful impact on the local community.

David Barker, Chief Growth Officer at Bidvest Noonan, said: “We are delighted to have secured this contract with Buttercrane Shopping Centre. I’m proud of the innovative solutions we’ve developed to support our customers and create real value for them. We look forward to helping Buttercrane Shopping Centre achieve its objectives and driving shared success together.”

Jim O’Hagan, Managing Director for Bidvest Noonan in Northern Ireland, added, “We’re really pleased to be working with Buttercrane Shopping Centre. It’s a key part of the local community and an important retail hub in Northern Ireland. This contract is a great opportunity for us to bring our talented people and latest innovations to support the centre’s success. We’re committed to delivering quality service every day and doing our part to help Buttercrane thrive as both a business and a community space.”

This contract win is one of many recent successes for Bidvest Noonan in Northern Ireland, cementing its position as the leading provider in the region.