New Appointment Tom Tuppen

Meccsia – a leading provider of technical inspection, maintenance, and engineering services across the UK – continues to build its group capability with the appointment of Tom Tuppen as Group Chief Commercial Officer.

Tom joins from M Group Services, where he led sales and strategy for the Energy Division. He brings broad operational and commercial experience of delivering high quality services to blue chip clients in settings including national infrastructure, clinical, high security and major events.

Meccsia's vision is to transform the UK's technical services inspection and maintenance industry. Their 'Local Service, National Reach' approach enables exceptional customer service at the local level while providing the breadth of expertise and footprint of a truly national organisation.

As Group Chief Commercial Officer, Tom will work with Meccsia's portfolio of companies on:

- Expanding Market Reach: Leveraging Meccsia's extensive national network and group-wide capabilities to serve a wider range of clients with comprehensive, technical facilities management solutions.
- Enhancing Client Relationships: Building upon existing partnerships to deliver new solutions tailored to the unique needs of each client, supported by the group's diverse technical expertise.
- Driving Innovation: Fostering a culture of continuous improvement, developing and implementing new technologies to optimise building performance and efficiency across the entire Meccsia Group.

"I'm thrilled to join Meccsia at such an exciting time," says Tom. "The group's strong relationships and track record of delivering high quality technical services across the UK represent the ideal foundation on which to build the UK's leading technical facilities management company."

Jon Coiley, CEO of Mecsia, added, "Tom's leadership and proven track record are invaluable assets as we pursue our ambitious growth plans. This appointment – our second since the recent investment from Synova and one of a number we have planned over the next few months – positions Mecsia perfectly for every Customer."
