

PTSG company to appear at the Independent Hotel Show

11 months ago

Guardian Electrical Compliance, a component company of Premier Technical Services Group Ltd \(PTSG\), has announced that several of its team will attend the Independent Hotel Show at the ExCel Exhibition Centre in London on 15 and 16 October 2024.

Independent Hotel Show is the only industry event dedicated entirely to the needs of luxury and boutique hoteliers. The Independent Hotel Show provides an unrivalled opportunity to present your products and services to owners and operators from luxury, boutique and independent hotels, all under one roof.

A firm fixture in the calendar of independent hoteliers and industry professionals alike, the show presents a curated collection of over 200 innovative product and service providers from across the hotel supply chain.

Guardian, part of PTSG Electrical Services Ltd, delivers a range of electrical testing and compliance services for clients in a range of sectors. Visitors can join Guardian to explore the latest in electrical compliance solutions tailored to the hospitality industry – whether it's to enhance safety, efficiency, or sustainability.
