

Batchelor achieves record-breaking success amidst industry challenges

1 year ago

Batchelor Air Conditioning & Refrigeration has announced a significant milestone in its operations, marked by record-breaking installations and service visits throughout the summer months.

Commenting for Batchelor, general manager Mark Richardson says: "This achievement underscores an unwavering commitment to excellence and customer satisfaction. It is made possible by the trust and support of our valued customers, and a dedicated team of service engineers, whose expertise and commitment to excellence have been pivotal in achieving record performance levels.

Batchelor's engineers are highly skilled and have extensive knowledge of the latest technologies and best practices in air conditioning and refrigeration. Their ability to deliver a prompt, reliable service has earned the company numerous accolades from satisfied customers, reinforcing its position as a trusted leader in the industry.

"In an industry facing uncertainty, the phenomenal growth we have experienced reflects the confidence our clients place in our services," says Mark. "This success is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our entire team, who consistently strive to deliver superior air conditioning solutions."
