

Bidvest Noonan and Liffey Valley Shopping Centre Celebrates Key Win at 2024 ICCA Awards

9 months ago

Bidvest Noonan has marked a significant achievement at the 2024 Irish Contract Cleaning Association (ICCA) Awards, further establishing itself as a leader in the FM services industry.

The ICCA Awards are the premier event in Ireland's cleaning sector, recognising outstanding service, innovation, and commitment to quality. Held at Dublin's iconic Mansion House, the event brought together over 500 industry professionals to celebrate excellence.

The event culminated in the announcement that Bidvest Noonan's team at Liffey Valley Shopping Centre had secured the coveted Overall Site of the Year Award. In addition to this honour, the company also won several other awards, including Best Cleaned Site in the Education Sector and Best Cleaned Site in the Retail Sector and multiple individual awards.

"We are delighted that Liffey Valley has received this recognition. Being awarded Overall Best Cleaned Site is an honour." said [Liffey Valley Client]. "Bidvest Noonan has been a fantastic partner, and their team's hard work and attention to detail have made a real difference in ensuring our centre is always a clean, welcoming and highly attractive space for all our visitors."

"This year's ICCA Awards have been a fantastic success for us," said Mary Kealy, Managing Director, Bidvest Noonan. "I'm extremely proud of all our teams for their hard work and achievements, which truly reflect our values of excellence and teamwork."
