

Hygiacura Group expands its facilities management portfolio with acquisition of First Point Cleaning and Maintenance

5 months ago

Hygiacura Group, a leading UK-based facilities management company, has announced the acquisition of the business and assets of First Point Cleaning and Maintenance Limited, headquartered in Kidderminster.

First Point Cleaning, led by Director Adrian Anghel, specialises in commercial cleaning and maintenance, serving a diverse range of clients across the West Midlands, including schools, medical facilities, and commercial offices.

This acquisition reflects Hygiacura's strategic commitment to expanding its footprint in the Midlands and growing its service offerings in the UK's facilities management sector.

With an active pipeline of deals that could add millions of pounds in new revenues, Hygiacura is consistently seeking opportunities to acquire more facilities management companies across the country.

Sacha Jakovljevic, Director of Hygiacura Group, commented, "The acquisition of First Point Cleaning and Maintenance is a significant step in our mission to deliver exceptional facilities management services across the UK. We are excited to bring their talented team on board and continue building on the strong foundation they have established in the West Midlands."

He added, "As we continue to expand, we are actively looking for more FM companies to join the Hygiacura Group, further enhancing our ability to meet the diverse needs of clients nationwide."

Adrian Anghel, Director of First Point Cleaning and Maintenance Limited, said, "Joining the Hygiacura Group is an exciting new chapter for our company. We are proud of the reputation we have built for quality and reliability, and we look forward to continuing this tradition under Hygiacura's umbrella. This event provides us with the resources and support needed to deliver even greater value to our clients."

The addition of First Point Cleaning reinforces Hygiacura's position as a leader in the facilities management industry, expanding its network and capabilities to meet the growing demand for professional services.
