

Julius Rutherford & Co achieves B Corp certification, leading the way in responsible cleaning practices

9 months ago

Julius Rutherford & Co (JR&Co), one of London's largest independent cleaning companies, is proud to announce its official B Corp certification. This recognition underscores JR&Co's commitment to sustainable and ethical business practices, placing it among a global community of companies dedicated to using business as a force for good.

B Corp certification is awarded to companies that meet high standards of social and environmental performance, accountability, and transparency. As a certified B Corp, JR&Co now joins a prestigious group of businesses focused on creating positive impacts across their operations. The certification is a testament to JR&Co's ongoing commitment to aligning its practices with broader societal values, ensuring that each decision considers the wellbeing of clients, employees, communities, and the environment.

Chris Turner, Executive Director of B Lab UK, said: "Business is a powerful force, and B Corps demonstrate that positive impact is possible in any sector. Welcoming Julius Rutherford & Co is an exciting moment for the cleaning industry. B Lab UK and the rest of the B Corp community are really pleased that JR&Co is paving the way for a new approach to doing things."

JR&Co's certification also aligns seamlessly with its current and future goals, which include further embedding sustainable practices into every aspect of its operations and expanding its positive impact on its teams and the community.

"Achieving B Corp certification is a proud milestone for JR&Co, as it reinforces our dedication to ethical practices and sustainable growth,” said Chris Jarvis, Managing Director of JR&Co. “We’ve always believed that our role goes beyond cleaning. Our renewed focus on undivided attention ensures that every detail is meticulously managed, creating environments that support our clients, our team, our community, and our planet.”

For JR&Co’s clients, partnering with a certified B Corp means choosing a provider that not only delivers exceptional cleaning but also prioritises sustainability and ethical practices at every level. By upholding the values embedded in the B Corp certification, JR&Co sets a new benchmark for responsible business in the cleaning industry.
